

◆ Upcoming Hitchcock Museum and Library Activities:

- January 26th: Kids Pottery Workshop

at the Library from 1 to 3 p.m. Children will have an opportunity to create a simple structured pottery piece that will be kiln fired. They can return the following week and paint their item which will then be kiln fired again before it is ready to take home. Class size is limited to 20 children (must be accompanied by an adult). There is a $10/per child clay/kiln fee for this workshop. RSVP's appreciated to the Library, 744-8258.

- February 2nd: Valentine Making Workshop

at the Hitchcock Museum and Library from 1 to 3 p.m. Stop by and make beautifully handcrafted Valentines for your family and friends. Children who attended the Pottery Workshop can also paint their creations at this workshop.

For more information call 802-744-8258.
